

FOR THE 25 YEARS OF INTERNATIONAL VIOLINISTIC COMPETITION: "FRIENDS OF POSTACCHINI"

Free donors to support the prestigious event

FERMO – A stage of great prestige and tradition, always open to young talents from the world of violin from every corner of the planet. This is the Andrea Postacchini International violin Competition of Fermo that is almost to the development of the 2018 edition, the TWENTYFIFTH to be precise at the "Teatro dell'Aquila" from 19 to 26 May.

The silver wedding between Fermo and the prestigious competition organized by the cultural association "Antiqua Marca Firmana" are celebrated starting from a new possibility that was born to support the event.

On the occasion of the 156th anniversary of the violin maker's death, in fact, the Antiqua Marca Firmana announces the news of the "Friends of Postacchini", liberal donations that actively participate in the support and the realization of the competition and its future.

A necessity that is becoming stronger today when it comes to carrying out important cultural projects who seek wider support beyond the traditional holdings. A will to create one network capable of making contact citizenship, public and private institutions, entrepreneurs, Italian and foreigners private individuals, with the culture and the young excellences of world music.

A donation to support an event that since 1994 has been working in a serious and passionate manner for the promotion of young violinists who reach Fermo from all over the world to be able to include this competition in their own path of life and music, participation in a contest among the most prestigious in the world. Through a free donation you can be "Friends of Postacchini" by joining the list of donors who, unless anonymity is requested, will be published on the website www.concorsopostacchini.it.

It will be possible to participate with the destination of 5x1000 (CF 90013210449) and even better with one free donation easy and safe with credit card, PayPal and / or even by bank transfer.

The competition, then, is always looking for new partners and sponsors who want to support the edition and the future in a mutual exchange of visibility and harmony of intent and purpose.

The great music, the one played on the most important stages of the world, the one that carries emotions and feelings, what is made of rigor, sweat and passion, can also start from a single gesture of those who love culture.

Visit...donate and convince to donate on www.concorsopostacchini.it